

Safety Data Sheet Statement (SDS)

A Safety Data Sheet is a detailed document prepared by the manufacturer of a chemical that describes the physical and chemical properties, health hazards, routes of exposure, safe handling practices, emergency and first aid procedures, and other control measures. Since walnuts are a raw agricultural commodity and are safe for human consumption, the need for an SDS is not applicable.