

PEANUT FREE STATEMENT

Avanti Nut Company, Inc. understands that a large majority of the population are allergic to peanuts. Peanuts are part of the legume family and not the nut family. Peanuts are known to cause mild to severe allergic reactions to the populations allergic to them. We ONLY process walnuts in our facility. We do not process any other commodity on the plant premises. Peanuts or any of its derivatives, including pieces, butters, oils, flours, and proteins are not contained in our product to the best of our knowledge.
